23rd Sunday of the Year

Year B Vol.2 Book P 129

A heartfelt plea from our catechists to ask if anyone would like to join us as a leader this year. Just a couple more leaders would help enormously as most of the members work full time and extra help would spread the load.

Please consider helping, you don't need to be a teacher, as all of us as grandparents, parents and single Catholics have a role as teachers to all young people.

Lots of teaching aids are available which follow the liturgical year and give lesson plans and many teaching ideas.

If you are interested contact Canon Danny or any of the children's liturgy catechists. Many thanks. Sheila.

TO ALL MISSIO RED BOX HOLDERS: Can you please return your boxes for counting. Please leave your boxes in the Sacristy cupboard for safe keeping. If anyone who doesn't currently have a red box and would like one, please contact Anne Hopkins at 6.30pm mass, or Irene Jukes at 10am mass, and we will supply one. Thank you.

Invitation to hear Fr Jacques Philippe: 'How to Grow Closer to God through the trials and suffering of life' on 16 September 6:45pm Church of Our Lady, St. John's Wood, NW8 8LA.

Last week's collection was £484.54 and collection from 26/8/18 was £1028.06; many thanks for your generosity.

Prayer: In your kindness would you please pray for all our sick, lonely and housebound including Robert Salazar, Mariah Egan, Michael Egan, Agnes Odiachi, and Marion Prior. Please, pray for those who have died recently: Hilary Sharp and for all whose anniversaries occur about now: Stephen Swann, Winnie McKay, Arthur Tron, Carol Walker, Mary Rochford, Michael Geraghty and Eleanor Glenn.

Adoremus Conference in Liverpool: As I mentioned last week the 'Adoremus' national conference is taking place in Liverpool this weekend where three of our parishioners will be representing us. I thought the following paragraphs from a missionary priest, Fr Paul Mooney, would be helpful in focusing our minds and hearts:

'The Eucharist has always been one of the most important aspects of Christianity.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church strongly asserts the 'Real Presence' of Jesus' body in the Eucharist; this is to say that the sacrament is not symbolic of the body and blood of Jesus but rather that it is his body and blood.

If I am to be 'salt of the earth and light to the world', then I must quell the anger that so prevails in the world today and replace it with respect, as I approach, reach out, assist, care for and dialogue with the world and its peoples. This is what our Lord did before me. This is what he asks of me today.

Only in the Eucharist will I find true meaning and lasting satisfaction. Even in the tranquillity and peace I experience after receiving Holy Communion will fan the fire of faith into a flame, burning in my heart, excited, as the first disciples were, to share the good news that brings hope, love, peace, truth, justice, purpose, direction and life.

Truly, in the Eucharist I become a new creation, fit for mission and ready to glorify God through my life'.

The funeral for Hilary Sharp RIP will take place on 19th September at 3pm at St Thomas More.
