A Holocaust Memorial Service will take place this Sunday evening at 5.30pm in Trinity Church. For many reasons it is right that we should remember members of Jewish community and people who were killed so cruelly in concentration camps. Anti-Semitism is recurrent at present throughout Europe and should be resisted. Later in the year there may be a chance to visit the synagogue in Welwyn Garden City.

Concert in aid of SVP Vinnie Packs for the Homeless: featuring Alexander Armstrong, Miranda Heldt, Alex Macqueen and the Choir with No Name, will take place on Monday 4 February at Farm Street Catholic Church, Mayfair, London W1K 3AN. A Service of Commemoration for Holocaust Memorial Day: Sunday 27 January, 5.30pm at Trinity. We have the opportunity to meet together to remember the millions of people affected by the Holocaust & Nazi Persecution and the subsequent genocides in Cambodia, Bosnia, Rwanda and Darfur. We will be reflecting on this year's theme, Torn From Home with a short film and readings taken from the testimonies of survivors as well as scripture, prayer, music and silence. Everyone will be very welcome.

Meditation Evening: Spring Series. Meditation is very good for your health in all areas: Body, Mind and Spirit. These evenings will help you to get started with this very different form of prayer. Here are some comments from people who have been doing it for just a little while:

"... I have found the silence inside me that I can enter, listen to and find a deep peace..."

"... When I awoke in the night, I remembered the meditation and went back to sleep..."

The next series begins this Thursday 31st January and then every Thursday till Holy Week.
